Elle's Journey

I moved from Bangkok to London in 1990. I have been deeply involved in the Thai food scene ever since my family ran a restaurant in Thailand. In 1994, I started opening Thai foods in a pub in Hammersmith and St Paul's.

Running a restaurant is all about connections. I love to eat and cook. I especially enjoy chatting with my customers about their preferences. My chef and I thrive on tailoring dishes to suit each person's taste.

In 2000, I moved to Hertford and opened Thai Rack in Parliament Square, the first Thai restaurant in town.

Over the next decade, I branched out to both Barnet and Dunstable. In 2012, I opened the original Elle's Thai Kitchen small takeaway in Hertford following up in 2014, I opened Khunnai Thai Restaurant in Stanstead Abbots (Now we added a sushi bar). My son and I love Japanese food as well so we would like to share this passion to our Hertford customers, so we opened Oishii Japanese Restaurant in 2016. In 2017, I moved to a bigger space two doors away for Elle's Kitchen to thrive as a welcoming restaurant. In November 2023, I opened The Golden Dragon Chinese Restaurant in St Andrew Street, Hertford.

At all of our restaurants, we prioritise the use of premium-quality meat and seafood. Our commitment to freshness is unwavering, as we exclusively employ sushi-grade fish. Additionally, we source fresh ingredients including vegetables and Thai herbs from Thailand. We ensure the utmost quality in all our products.

I am grateful for my loyal customers. Some of whom has been with me ever since I first opened in Hertford.

They have supported my business across all locations. All customers are important to me. I am excited to meet new faces and continue working with our regulars to create the perfect meal.

Your thoughts and feedback are always welcome.

Thank you for reading this.

Enjoy your meal!
